Pitt Med Professionalism Accolade

CONGRATULATIONS!

Andrea Amabile, MD
PGY2 Resident
Department of
Cardiothoracic Surgery

Dr. Amabile is an incredibly welcome addition to Pitt/UPMC. He is truly an outstanding teacher in every sense of the word. Despite being new to UPMC and on an extremely busy service he took every free minute he had to teach and explain the basics of surgery and CT surgery. He was patient, thorough, kind and instructive. He provided reassurance and constructive feedback in the setting of busy operations and stressful ICU wards in a manner that made it seem perfectly fine, even expected, for medical students to take longer with procedures, have questions and need guidance. He stands far and above any other clinical instructor I have experienced in my time at Pitt. His feedback is specific, actionable, and kind. He never fails to praise or reassure along with correction. Dr. Amabile is phenomenal teacher, mentor, surgeon, and person.
