University of Pittsburgh | Office of the Learning Environment School of Medicine

PITT MED PROFESSIONALISM ACCOLADE

ANDREW LIU

MS1 Student

"Andrew Liu (MS1) has been instrumental in furthering my knowledge of nephrology, always making himself available to answer questions and clarify complex topics. Whether in class or outside of it, he is eager to help without hesitation, ensuring that my friends and I fully grasp difficult concepts. His enthusiasm for both learning and teaching is evident in the creative ways he explains material, often presenting information in unique and memorable ways. Andrew's ability to break down intricate ideas with innovative approaches has significantly enhanced my understanding of nephrology. His generosity with his time and knowledge has made a meaningful impact on my education, and I truly appreciate his support."

Submitted by a Medical Student
Nephrology (3RC), Spring 2025