EMILY NEAL

MS3 Student

"Emily Neal proved to be an invaluable asset to the inpatient team during her IM rotation. She demonstrated exceptional patience, respect, and kindness toward her patients, consistently advocating for their well-being. One notable example was her care for a patient with advanced decompensated cirrhosis and refractory hydrothorax. Emily not only provided crucial emotional support but also expertly coordinated care across multiple subspecialties, ensuring a safe and thoughtful plan of action that was appreciated by both the patient and myself. Her dedication and commitment to going above and beyond for every patient she cared for were truly remarkable."
