JOHN "JACK" DONOHUE

MS3 Student

"Jack deserves recognition for his support and teamwork during our surgery rotation. He consistently went out of his way to help fellow students, particularly myself—whether by sharing resources, answering questions, or offering encouragement during challenging weeks. His positive attitude and willingness to support others created a collaborative and uplifting learning environment. Surgery can be a demanding rotation, but Jack made it easier through his generosity and teamwork. He was always available to answer questions about our shared clerkship site, provide tips for success, and ease anxiety about cases. I was glad to have a peer like him for support, and I know his innate ability to connect with others will take him far in his career, surgical or otherwise."
