"Dana Schaar has demonstrated outstanding professionalism on her MS3 Internal Medicine Rotation. What stands out most is Dana's empathy in her interactions with patients, and desire to learn more about their conditions to further their care. She approached difficult conversations with a gentle demeanor and checked in frequently with them, which greatly benefited both patients and their families. Dana went above and beyond to help the team by working collaboratively with other medical students and taking initiative with tasks that helped the team take care of our patients!"
