PITT MED PROFESSIONALISM ACCOLADE

CHARLES JIANG

MS1 Student

"Being in small group with Charles has honestly been one of the best parts of this block. He's such a joy to be around—always smiling, always bringing this calm, friendly energy that makes everyone feel at ease. He's the kind of person who asks thoughtful questions and somehow manages to make even awkward silence feel okay...
And on top of being a great classmate, he lives such an active life—always running, always traveling—and it's super motivating. It's made me want to get outside and move more too. Just overall, he's someone who makes this med school thing a lot more manageable and a lot more fun..."
