CHRISTOPHER "CHRIS" CHAE

MS1 Student

"Before our Pulmonology summative exam, Chris Chae baked our small group Ube cookies. In the midst of a busy and stressful time, Chris went above and beyond to brighten our small group, sacrificing his own precious study time. This wasn't an isolated incident, as Chris has baked for our small group before other summative exams as well. Within our small group, Chris is a constant light and joy, actively participating and helping others out."
