University of Pittsburgh | Office of the Learning Environment School of Medicine

PITT MED PROFESSIONALISM ACCOLADE

ANNIE SCHULMAN

MS2 Student

"This semester, Annie has played an integral role in coordinating and conducting interviews for prospective students. She has managed an intense workload with remarkable composure and adaptability, navigating changes to the interview process with professionalism and grace. Her clear, thoughtful communication with the class has ensured that the experience remains as welcoming and enjoyable as possible for everyone involved. Annie's dedication to creating a positive, inclusive atmosphere reflects her genuine commitment to representing the program with warmth and excellence.

Beyond her contributions to the interviewing process, Annie is a consistently kind, engaged, and motivated student. She approaches her studies with curiosity and diligence, and her energy enriches the classroom environment for her peers."

Submitted by a Medical Student
Neuroscience, Fall 2025