PITT MED PROFESSIONALISM ACCOLADE

AMBER VANDEVENDER

GS3, Molecular Pharamacology

Biomedical Graduate Student Association's STUDENT OF THE MONTH
MARCH 2026

"Amber is a great graduate student community member at Pitt Med! She carries herself with a level of professionalism that is very grounding and creates positive impacts in others' days through her interactions. Also, she is always open and willing to share her knowledge on different protocols with others who ask!"
