JONATHAN "JON" BECKEL, PhD

Faculty
Department of Pharmacology & Molecular Biology

"Dr. Beckel gave a lecture to our class today on introductory Pharmacokinetics. The lecture was so expertly and understandably given that, immediately after the lecture, I turned to the classmates around me, and we all had the same thought about how helpful that session was! He anticipated and broke down difficult concepts on a level that was very easy to understand. I hope we have another lecture from him soon!"
