Pitt Med Professionalism Accolade

CONGRATULATIONS!

Paul Rusilko, DO, FACS

Faculty
Department of Urology

Dr. Rusilko is one of the best attendings I have ever had. His passion for his craft and for teaching is evident. His surgical team respects him. His patients revere him. He strikes a perfect balance of professional and personable. As a student, he helped me feel empowered during a difficult clinical rotation. I felt like a valuable addition to the team. An amazing teacher will make a student interested in the subject they teach. Despite not having aspirations for urology, my time with Dr. Rusilko had me considering the field.
