

Pitt Med Professionalism Accolade

CONGRATULATIONS!

Estefany Villalobos, PA-C

Physician Assistant
Department of Critical Care
Medicine

Estefany was both an exemplary educator and kindhearted. While managing multiple patients within the ICU, she took the time to teach about foundational topics and showcasing evidence-based exam findings. She was shared informational material that aided in the development of her illness scripts and treatment plans. More than just teaching, Estefany approached each interaction with deep empathy, ensuring that both her patients, patient families, and staff felt valued, heard, and understood. Her commitment to combining education with compassion set a standard for excellence even under challenging circumstances.
